

Mama Pajama and Friends will captivate young audiences with stories from every continent of the globe, along with various cultural groups within our own country. Kids will discover culture, diversity and traditions, leaving them smiling and wanting more! The story selections in this jam-packed show are wonderful examples that demonstrate the things that make us unique, as well as the common bonds that unite us all. Humanity is brought to the forefront, and positive messages are taught about how reading and imagination can offer endless possibilities for their our children's own explorations.
